We favor home rule for and early admission to statehood of the territories of New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma.—National Republican Platform.

THANK YOU, NEIGHBOR.

"The Alamogordo News turns its guns loose on some of Otero county's officers this week and ribs them up in no uncertain terms. It is annoying to have county officers, and especially of your own party, haggling over the price of a little jim crow job. As soon as these people get into office the first thing they do is to cut the printer down, although, in many cases, the paper they are trying to down has put them where they are. The News plant is the best in the territory and the people ought to feel proud of it. The News has done more to make Alamo-gordo a thriving little city and build up the surrounding country than a room full of county officials."—Tularosa Democrat.

The monthly magazines are doing most of the fighting in China now.
"I know of no better or safer human tribunal than the people."—Wm. McKinley.

"FULL-O'PEANUTS BRYAN" is rather lavish with battery in comparing Aguinaldo to George Washington.

The anti-imperialism plank of the Democratic platform has knocked the stars off the Jeffersonian banner.

Two new church buildings will add materially to the looks of Alamogordo.
The Catholics and Baptists will make the improvements soon.

"FULL-O'PEANUTS BRYAN" has so argument as strong as the full dinner pail.

This job work business will not look so funny to the Democratic paper in the future.

Fakes in Houston are selling canes made from the logs of ships lost in the Galveston storm.

Mrs. Pearl Price of Oakland has deserted her husband. She is a Pearl without Price now.

The political candidates will soon have an opportunity to learn how infernally mean they are.

BLACK JACK will be killed again at Clayton, October 5. This time he will be hung until VERY dead.

El Paso is having trouble with fire bugs. They are even more unpopular down there than gold bugs.

THERE is no doubt that Otero county has Democratic office seekers who are almost as great as Aguinaldo.

MANY a man who rode harvesting machines this year was walking around with a scythe and whetstone four years ago.

If the knockers of Alamogordo could be engaged by a base ball association, all the stars would soon be batted out of the firmament.

The Tularosa Democrat predicts that "there will be h— to pay" in the county convention." Then, perhaps, the devil will get his dues.

JIM LAURIE can have anything that he wants from the laboring men of Alamogordo. He is one of the men who is sure of election.

"God protect me from the man I trust! I will protect myself from him whom I trust not," is the thought in the brain of many a politician now.

IT seems funny that the only man holding a county office who has expressed himself as unwilling to run again should receive all the abuse of the alleged Democratic paper.

WHEN the man who wants to "run the county" says that someone else shall not do it, the people reflect on who is best qualified to handle the throttle, and continue to saw wood.

REPUBLICAN newspapers point with pride to the importation of hemp from the Philippines. It really seems as though the product were needed over there worse than here.

EXPANSION means that the tide of commerce will roll further westward.
It means more factories, more railroads, more capital, more labor, more tillable land and more farmers for New Mexico.

OOM PAUL has concluded to give up the South African cause. He writes The News editor that he is 74 years of age and that he believes he is old enough to know better than to whip England again.

FOUR years ago there were plenty of "Jacksonian and Jeffersonian Democrats." The fact that the father of Democracy was an expansionist has caused Mr. Bryan to lay his name on the shelf.

COLONEL LEWIS would make a splendid chairman of the republican county central committee. He is a newcomer in the community and has no axes to grind and no defined animosities to burden the party with.

WHILE the voters of Otero county are craning their necks to see the home stretch of the sheriff's race, it may be well to jog their memory about an incident of minor importance—Bill McKinley is yet running for president.

THE man who wears out his trousers sitting around on the ragged edge of starvation, is seldom a teller. He can generally be found talking politics and cussing the country. Otero county needs more men like J. C. Dunn.

"No IMPERIAL designs urk in the American mind. They are alien to American sentiment, thought and purpose. Our priceless principles undergo no change under a tropical sun. They go with the flag."—Wm. McKinley.

MESSES. GREIG and Alexander are rubbing the eyes of the El Paso citizens to an awakening sense of their duty relative to a winter carnival. Otero county will be glad to spend a little money in El Paso if given some such invitation.

AN ALAMOGORDO man states that Billy Mason is the whole thing, because he has taken such a decided stand against adulteration, and further gravely asserts that adultery should not be countenanced in any civilized community.

"SHEP," as the little Democratic newspaper affectionately calls the honorable county clerk, seems to be a popular man in Tularosa. He has given evidence of more strength than any other man in the party, and he didn't ask for support, either.

A BAPTIST section down in Georgia has turned solid for Bryan because someone represented to the people that if McKinley is re-elected he will abolish baptism by immersion and compel everyone to adopt the Methodist faith. Affairs are not so bad in Otero county, after all.

THE News will do job work cheaper than any other printing house in Alamogordo or El Paso. Get your bid elsewhere, then bring the work to this office and secure a 10 per cent reduction from the other man's price. The News' job rooms are in charge of a union printer and all work shows evidences of skilled labor.

Now that a few flags have been planted in Peking, it seems a hard matter to haul them down.

No town ever has or ever will succeed without the united efforts of its citizens.
Factions working at cross purposes only disgrace enterprising men, and soon they pull out and leave the back-cappers "chewing the rag." Be liberal enough to let the other fellow have his way part of the time.

CONCERNING TRUSTS.

President McKinley said in his letter of acceptance:
"Combinations of capital which control the market in commodities necessary to the general use of the people, by suppressing natural and ordinary competition, thus enhancing prices to the general consumer, are obnoxious to the common law and the public welfare.
They are dangerous conspiracies against the public good, and should be made the subject of prohibitory or penal legislation. Publicity will be a helpful influence to check this evil. Uniformity of legislation in the several States should be secured. Discrimination between what is injurious and what is useful and necessary in business operations is essential to the wise and effective treatment of this subject. Honest co-operation of capital is necessary to meet new business conditions and extend our rapidly increasing foreign trade, but conspiracies and combinations intended to restrict business, create monopolies and control prices should be effectively restrained."

WILL DO BETTER.

THE News will in the future infuse a little elixir of life into its editorial and news columns. There was a time when The News was considered the best weekly newspaper in the territory of New Mexico. At that time the paper received the united support of the community and some advertising from the Alamo-gordo Improvement company. When the company curtailed its expenses and eliminated advertising the paper immediately chopped off a commensurate degree of special articles booming the town, believing that the Improvement company was better able to advertise the place than the printing company and than the former institution had more at stake. Through the efforts of the paper there were received last fall over 200 letters from prospective home-seekers, many of whom have since come here to reside. This year the paper has not received 20 letters. It is patent that the failure to interest more outsiders is due entirely to lack of enterprise and advertising. However, The News will start on its own responsibility and boost the place as long as its money holds out whether it receives any assistance or not.

PROVINCE OF THE COMMITTEE.

The experience in the Republican party this fall will teach a valuable lesson to the new central committee. It is the province and duty of the central committee to so organize its forces that there will be no serious dissensions in the party. Among the unwritten laws of Republican party institutions is one that places the selection of candidates in the hands of committees. If the committee does not exercise this function and refuse to consider candidates who can do nothing for the party except create strife, the inevitable result is the appearance of a number of politicians with axes to grind who gradually usurp the prerogative of the county central committee and even develop individual strength that is greater than the party.
It is a funny thing to see this fall a number of local politicians who absolutely disregard the party and the central committee and who really believe that they are the whole party. When the votes are counted they will find that they have made the mistake of their lives in driving more Republican votes to the Democratic candidates than they can hope to win from Democrats. It is to be hoped that the new county central committee will stand no foolishness and will keep the party organization intact by ruling the party and holding the ambitions of politicians in check with an iron hand.

FACTS FOR FARMERS.

How many in Monroe county can say they were prosperous the past four years? Now don't all speak at once.—Times.

Nearly every one can say that he fared better during the past three years than he did under the Cleveland soup house regime. A comparison of time and prices looks up something like this:
Do you know that one bushel of corn will buy 2½ pounds of coffee, when in 1896 it bought but two-thirds of a pound?

That one bushel of wheat will buy 13 yards of gingham while in 1896 it bought but 10 yards? That one bushel of oats will buy six pounds of rolled oats, while in 1896 it bought 2½ pounds. That 320 bushels of corn will buy a binder, while in 1896 it took 750 bushels. That 171 bushels of corn will buy a wagon while in 1896 it took 344 bushels, or that 100 bushels of wheat will buy the same wagon, while in 1896 it took 110 bushels?

That 44 bushels of corn will buy a chilled plow, while in 1896 it took 100 bushels? That one pound of wool will buy 4½ yards of calico, while in 1896 it bought 2½ yards? That nine bushels of corn will buy a keg of nails, and in 1896 it took 10 bushels?

That three bushels of corn will buy 13 yards of Lonsdale muslin, of which it took 55 in 1896? That 55 pounds of wool will buy you a good suit that it took 109 to buy in 1896? That 13½ pounds of wool will buy a pair of shoes which it took 27 pounds to buy in 1896? That 38 1-5 bushels of wheat will buy a set of harness that it took 30 bushels to buy in 1896 or that 66 bushels of corn will buy, while it took 155 bushels in 1896; or that 100 bushels of oats will buy, while it took 250 bushels in 1896; or 113 pounds of wool will buy, while it took 227 pounds in 1896?

Then everything you have to sell will buy more of the necessities of life than the same amount would purchase in 1896?

In 1896 the implement men were besieged with offers to trade horses and cows for implements, and now you never hear of any such offer being made.— Waterloo (Ill.) Republican.

ADVERTISING CERTAINLY

lic wants, say so and you will get tisement relative to having goats for sale. I sold them almost a month ago and neglected to notify you before. My mail is being crowded with offers to buy or to trade for goats, all referring to the advertisement in The News.

Very Respectfully,
P. KEARNEY.
